

where the air temperature is increasing with increasing altitude; between points A and B. The inversion will usually disappear later in the day as the ground is warmed by sunlight.

Effects of carbon monoxide exposure on man. Note that the overall effect depends on both concentration and exposure time. The NAAQS standards for CO are 9 ppm (1-hour period) and 35 ppm (8-hour period).

The labels for the curves were inadvertently left off. If you